Samuel Totten
Steven Leonard Jacobs
editors

Pioneers of Genocide Studies

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)
Contents

Introduction xi
   Samuel Totten and Steven Leonard Jacobs

Historians

1. Finding the Words 3
   Rouben Paul Adalian

2. Confronting the Armenian Genocide 27
   Richard G. Hovannisian

3. Vita Felix, Via Dolorosa: An Academic Journey 47
   Towards Genocide
   Henry R. Huttenbach

4. Facts and Values: A Personal Intellectual Exploration 59
   James E. Mace

5. The Questioner 75
   Yves Ternon

Political Scientists

6. A German-Born Genocide Scholar 97
   Barbara Harff

7. Studying Genocide to Protect Life 113
   Herbert Hirsch

8. How I Came to the Study of Genocide 129
   Kurt Jonassohn
9. My Journey in the Study of Genocide
   Robert Melson

10. From the Study of War and Revolution to Democide—Power Kills
    R. J. Rummel

11. Who is My Neighbor?
    Roger W. Smith

12. Breaking the Membrane
    Colin Tatz

Sociologists

13. From Social Action to Social Theory and Back:
    Paths and Circles
    Helen Fein

14. The Quest for Scholarship in My Pathos for the Armenian Tragedy and Its Victims
    Vahakn N. Dadrian

15. Gauging Genocide: Social Science Dimensions and Dilemmas
    Irving Louis Horowitz

16. Leo Kuper: A Giant Pioneer
    Israel W. Charny

17. My Path to Genocide Studies
    Eric Markusen

Lawyers and Jurists

18. Bearing Witness
    M. Cherif Bassiouni

19. Totally Unofficial Man
    Raphael Lemkin
20. The Call
Gregory H. Stanton

Psychologists

21. A Passion for Life and Rage at the Wasting of Life
Israel W. Charny

22. The Roots and Prevention of Genocide and
Other Collective Violence: A Life's Work
Shaped by a Child's Experience
Ervin Staub

Theologian

23. From Holocaust to Genocide:
The Journey Continues
Steven Leonard Jacobs

Independent Scholars

24. Confronting Genocide in Cambodia
David Hawk

25. A Matter of Conscience
Samuel Totten

Selected Bibliography

About the Contributors

Index