Neither Lady nor Slave

Working Women of the Old South
Contents

Introduction 1

PART ONE
The Rural World and the Coming of the Market Economy

1. Dollars Never Fail to Melt their Hearts: Native Women and the Market Revolution 15
   JAMES TAYLOR CARSON

2. Made by the Hands of Indians: Cherokee Women and Trade 34
   SARAH H. HILL

3. Producing Dependence: Women, Work, and Yeoman Households in Low-Country South Carolina 55
   STEPHANIE MCCURRY

PART TWO
Wage-Earning Women in the Urban South

4. A White Woman, of Middle Age, Would Be Preferred: Children’s Nurses in the Old South 75
   STEPHANIE COLE

5. Spheres of Influence: Working White and Black Women in Antebellum Savannah 102
   TIMOTHY J. LOCKLEY

6. Patient Laborers: Women at Work in the Formal Economy of West(ern) Virginia 121
   BARBARA J. HOWE
PART THREE
Women as Unacknowledged Professionals

7. Depraved and Abandoned Women: Prostitution in Richmond, Virginia, across the Civil War 155
   E. SUSAN BARBER

8. The Female Academy and Beyond: Three Mordecai Sisters at Work in the Old South 174
   EMILY BINGHAM AND PENNY RICHARDS

   EMILY CLARK

10. Faith and Frugality in Antebellum Baltimore: The Economic Credo of the Oblate Sisters of Providence 221
    DIANE BATTs MORROW

PART FOUR
Working Women in the Industrial South

11. I Can’t Get My Bored on Them Old Lomes: Female Textile Workers in the Antebellum South 249
    BESS BEATTY

12. To Harden a Lady’s Hand: Gender Politics, Racial Realities, and Women Millworkers in Antebellum Georgia 261
    MICHELE GILLESPIE

13. Invisible Woman: Female Labor in the Upper South’s Iron and Mining Industries 285
    SUSANNA DELFINO

Contributors 309
Index 311