CONTENTS

Notes on contributors vii
Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: collusion and collision 1
DAVID H. J. LARMOUR

PART I
The artist and ideology 13

1 The Nabokov–Wilson debate: art versus social and moral responsibility 15
GALYA DIMENT

2 Two organ-grinders: duality and discontent in Bend Sinister 24
BRIAN D. WALTER

PART II
Discourses of gender and sexuality 41

3 Okrylyonnyy Soglyadatay – The winged eavesdropper: Nabokov and Kuzmin 43
GALINA RYLKOVA

4 Getting one past the goalkeeper: sports and games in Glory 59
DAVID H. J. LARMOUR

5 The crewcut as homoerotic discourse in Nabokov’s Pale Fire 74
PAUL ALLEN MILLER
CONTENTS

PART III
Lolita

6 Seeing through Humbert: focussing on the feminist sympathy in Lolita
TONY MOORE

7 Discourse, ideology, and hegemony: the double dramas in and around Lolita
ELIZABETH PATNOE

PART IV
Cultural contacts

8 Nabokov and the sixties
D. BARTON JOHNSON

9 Vladimir Nabokov and popular culture
SUE LEN STRINGER-HYE

Works cited
Index