Geography and Economy in South Africa and its Neighbours

Edited by

ANTHONY LEMON
School of Geography and the Environment, Oxford University

CHRISTIAN M. ROGERSON
Geography Department, University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables viii
List of Contributors ix
Acknowledgements xiv

Introduction 1
Anthony Lemon and Christian M. Rogerson

PART 1: SOUTH AFRICA

1 Land Reform and Agriculture 25
Charles Mather

2 Leviathan Bound: Fisheries Reform in South Africa, 1994-2001 45
Lance van Sittert

3 Mining and Minerals 63
Paul Crankshaw

4 South Africa's Manufacturing Economy: Problems and Performance 81
Etienne Nel

5 Tourism – A New Economic Driver for South Africa 95
Christian M. Rogerson

6 South African Finance across Time and Space 111
Patrick Bond

7 South Africa’s Information Technology Economy: Directions and Key Policy Issues 132
Christian M. Rogerson
PART 2: NEIGHBOURING STATES

9 Namibia’s Economy: From Colonial Chattel to Postcolonial Pragmatism
   David Simon

10 Adjustments to Globalisation: The Changing Economic Geography of Botswana
   Agnes Musyoki and Michael Bernard Kwesi Darkoh

11 Lesotho: Peripheral Dependence, Poverty and Political Instability
   Anthony Lemon

12 Swaziland: Changing Economic Geography
   Miranda Miles-Mafafo

13 Zimbabwe: In Search of Spatial and Social Equity
   Lovemore Zinyama and Daniel Tevera

14 Mozambique: Development, Inequality and the New Market Geography
   Graham Harrison

PART 3: SOUTHERN AFRICA AND BEYOND

15 Regional Economic Integration
   Richard Gibb

16 Trade, Aid and Foreign Investment: South Africa, Southern Africa and the European Union
   Anthony Lemon and Richard Gibb

Index