Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Preface ix
Acknowledgments xvii

Introduction “The Famine Killed Everything”: Living with the Memory of the Great Hunger Christine Kinealy 1

PART ONE: SILENCE

Chapter 1 Famine Lifelines: The Transatlantic Letters of James Prendergast Edward McCarron 41

Chapter 2 The “Unborn and Unburied Dead”: The Rhetoric of Ireland’s An Gorta Mor Robert A. Smart and Michael R. Hutcheson 63

Chapter 3 The Tangled Roots of Irish Immigrants and African Americans: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives MaryAnn Matthews 82
Chapter 4  An Agenda for Researching the Famine Experience of Kilglass Parish, County Roscommon  Mary Lee Dunn

Chapter 5  W. B. Yeats's Politics of Proximity: or The Famine's Absence in Yeats's Poetry  Rached Khalifa

Chapter 6  Silent Hunger: The Psychological Impact of the Great Hunger  Deborah Peck

PART TWO: MEMORY

Chapter 7  Seamus Heaney's "At a Potato Digging" Revisited  Thomas O'Grady

Chapter 8  Easing Integration: The Impact of the Great Famine on the American South  David T. Gleeson

Chapter 9  Performing the Famine: A Look at Contemporary Irish Dramatists  Jerome Joseph Day, O.S.B.

Chapter 10  The Great Hunger: Act of God or Acts of Man?  William B. Rogers

Chapter 11  "I will sone be home": Margaret Maher, Emily Dickinson, and an Irish Trunk Full of Poems  Connie Ann Kirk

PART THREE: COMMEMORATION

Chapter 12  Famine Commemorations: Visual Dialogues, Visual Silences  Kathleen O'Brien
Chapter 13  Le Mémorial: An Irish Memorial at Grosse Île in Quebec  Sylvie Gauthier 294

Chapter 14  (De)Constructing the Irish Famine Memorial in Contemporary Quebec  Lorrie Blair 311

Chapter 15  Reflections on the Grosse Île Memorial in Contemporary Quebec: A Response  Gregory P. Garvey 330

Chapter 16  The MacGilligan Family and the Great Hunger: Collaborative Strategies in an Irish History Course  Karen Manners Smith, Holly Gillogly, Jim Riordan 334

Chapter 17  Designing the New York State Great Irish Famine Curriculum Guide  Maureen Murphy, Maureen McCann Militta, Alan Singer 361

List of Contributors 393