TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE (Djelal Kadir and Dorothea Löbbermann)

INTRODUCTION
Djelal Kadir The Spatial Logic of Just-in-Time Modernism .............. 11

DEFINITIONS AND BEGINNINGS OF MODERNISMS:
OTHER LOCALITIES

Joep Leerssen Progress and Nostalgia in Modernity ..................... 27

Angela Esterhammer Nineteenth-Century Modernities in an Age of Cosmopolitanism: Language and Cultural Difference in the Work of the Humboldt Brothers ............................................. 35

Reingard Nethersole Out of Modernity:
"Fulfillment without lament" .............................................. 47

György Kálmán After Dictatorships:
Transition, Modernity, Post-Modernity and Power ........................ 63

Galin Tihanov Regimes of Modernity at the Dawn of Globalisation:
Carl Schmitt and Alexandre Kojève ........................................ 75

Sangjin Park Porous Modernity: Overcoming Modernity in the Age of Globalization ......................................................... 95

Ho-Byeong Yoon Perspectives of Korean Modernity from the 18th Century to the Present: Intellectual Struggles for Koreanity in the Age of Globalization ........................................... 107

CONTACTS THROUGH TIME AND SPACE

Eugene Chen Eoyang A Cross-cultural Perspective on the Modern and the Postmodern ..................................................... 119

Justus Fetscher Networks and Texts: Changing Attitudes towards Writing and Publishing in Enzensberger and Diderot .......... 133
Ulrike Kistner Ancient Disenchantments and Modern Re-Enchantments: Reading Max Weber with Subaltern Studies, Critically .................................................. 143

Dorothea Löbbermann Modernism in Black and White: Samuel R. Delany’s “Atlantis: Model 1924” and the Aesthetics of Difference ................................................................. 157

Ersu Ding Narrating the Pre-modern across Borders ....................... 169

Walter Moser “The Time is out of Joint”: Temporal Disorders in the Late Modern Condition .......................................................... 183

TEXTUAL PRODUCTION AND RECEPTION: NARRATIVE, POWER, FRAGMENTATION

Vladimir Biti The Conflict of Loyalties: Location and Mobility / Modernity and Subjection ................................................................. 211

Hermann Herlinghaus ‘Narrativization’ as De-Representation of Modernity: Peripheral Reflections on Benjamin’s “The Storyteller” ......................................................... 221

Svend Erik Larsen The Novel and Modernities: On Malcolm Lowry’s Under the Volcano .......................................................... 239

Karl-Heinz Magister The Construction of an Urban ‘Post-Intra-Modern’ Space: Paul Auster’s and Wayne Wang’s Smoke and Blue in the Face .......................................................... 255

Manfred Schmeling Differenz, Hybridisierung, Globalisierung – Interkulturelle Poetik heute ......................................................... 265

POSTSCRIPT
Robert Stockhammer No Center, Suspending Bridges ................... 285

CONTRIBUTORS ..................................................................... 289