CONTENTS

Acknowledgments • 7

PART I  CITIZENSHIP IN THEORY AND HISTORY

CHAPTER 1 Rethinking the Citizen in Canadian Social History
Robert Menzies, Robert Adamoski, and Dorothy E. Chunn • 11

CHAPTER 2 Three Stories of Canadian Citizenship • Janine Brodie • 43

PART II  CONSTITUTING THE CANADIAN CITIZEN

CHAPTER 3 “The Citizenship Debates”: The 1885 Franchise Act
Veronica Strong-Boag • 69

CHAPTER 4 From the Nation to the Citizen: Québec Historical Writing and the Shaping of Identity • Ronald Rudin • 95

CHAPTER 5 Indigenous Citizenship and History in Canada:
Between Denial and Imposition • Claude Denis • 113

PART III  DOMESTICITY, INDUSTRY AND NATIONHOOD

CHAPTER 6 Scaffolding Citizenship: Housing Reform and Nation
Formation in Canada, 1900-1950 • Sean Purdy • 129

CHAPTER 7 Unemployment and the New Industrial Citizenship:
A Review of the Ontario Unemployment Commission, 1916
Jennifer Stephen • 155
| Chapter 8 | Indispensable But Not a Citizen: The Housewife in the Great Depression | Denyse Baillargeon | 179 |
| Chapter 9 | Time, Swimming Pools, and Citizenship: The Emergence of Leisure Rights in Mid-Twentieth-Century Canada | Shirley Tillotson | 199 |

PART IV
PEDAGOGIES OF BELONGING AND EXCLUSION

| Chapter 10 | "The Good Citizen": Masculinity and Citizenship at Frontier College, 1899-1933 | Lorna R. McLean | 225 |
| Chapter 11 | Education for Motherhood: Creating Modern Mothers and Model Citizens | Katherine Arnup | 247 |
| Chapter 12 | Constructing Normal Citizens: Sex Advice for Postwar Teens | Mary Louise Adams | 273 |
| Chapter 13 | Black Nova Scotian Women's Schooling and Citizenship: An Education of Violence | Bernice Moreau | 293 |

PART V
THE BOUNDARIES OF CITIZENSHIP

| Chapter 14 | The Child - The Citizen - The Nation: The Rhetoric and Experience of Wardship in Early Twentieth-Century British Columbia | Robert Adamski | 315 |
| Chapter 15 | Creating Social and Moral Citizens: Defining and Treating Delinquent Boys and Girls in English Canada, 1920-65 | Joan Sangster | 337 |
| Chapter 16 | Sex and Citizenship: (Hetero)Sexual Offences, Law and "White" Settler Society in British Columbia, 1885-1940 | Dorothy E. Chunn | 359 |
| Chapter 17 | "Unfit" Citizens and the B.C. Royal Commission on Mental Hygiene, 1925-28 | Robert Menzies | 385 |

Contributors • 415

Index • 419