Plagiarism in Early Modern England

Edited by

Paulina Kewes
Senior Lecturer
Department of English
University of Wales, Aberystwyth
Contents

List of Figures ix
Notes on Contributors x
Preface xiii

1. Historicizing Plagiarism
   Paulina Kewes 1

Part I: Approaches to Plagiarism 19

2. Plagiarism
   Christopher Ricks 21

3. Plagiarism: Hammond versus Ricks
   Brean S. Hammond 41

4. Plagiarism and Original Sin
   Stephen Orgel 56

5. Forgery, Plagiarism, Imitation, Pegleggery
   Nick Groom 74

Part II: Contexts of Plagiarism 91

6. Plagiarising the Word of God: Tyndale between
   More and Joye
   Andrew Hope 93

7. Plagiarism and Imitation in Renaissance Historiography
   Lisa Richardson 106

8. 'The Fripperie of Wit': Jonson and Plagiarism
   Ian Donaldson 119

9. The Medium of Plagiarism: Rogue Choreographers
   in Early Modern London
   Barbara Ravelhofer 134

10. Originality and the Puritan Sermon
    Harold Love 149
viii Contents

11. Theft and Poetry and Pope
   Paul Baines 166

12. ‘In Pleasing Memory of All He Stole’: Plagiarism and Literary Detraction, 1747–1785
   Richard Terry 181

13. Lone Travellers: The Construction of Originality and Plagiarism in Colonial Grammars of the Late Eighteenth and Early Nineteenth Centuries
   Richard Steadman-Jones 201

   Afterword
   Bertrand A. Goldgar 215

Notes 221

Index 252