Contents

List of Illustrations .................................................. ix
Acknowledgments ....................................................... x

Introduction

CHAPTER 1  The West of African American Women, 1600–2000 .................................................. 3
Shirley Ann Wilson Moore and Quintard Taylor

CHAPTER 2  African American Women in Western History: Past and Prospect ............................... .22
Glenda Riley

The Spanish-Mexican Period

ISABEL DE OLVERA ARRIVES IN NEW MEXICO .................................................. 31

CHAPTER 3  To Be Black and Female in the Spanish Southwest: Toward a History of African Women on New Spain’s Far Northern Frontier ......................... .32
Dedra S. McDonald

The Antebellum West

A TEXAS SLAVE’S LETTER TO HER HUSBAND, 1862 ........................................... 55

CHAPTER 4  Mining a Mythic Past: The History of Mary Ellen Pleasant ............................... .56
Lynn M. Hudson
CHAPTER 5  Rights of Passage: Gendered-Rights Consciousness and the Quest for Freedom, San Francisco, California, 1850–1870 ............................... 73
Barbara Y. Welke

The Post–Civil War Era

CHAPTER 6  “Anxious Foot Soldiers”: Sacramento’s Black Women and Education in Nineteenth-Century California ...... 97
Susan Bragg

Willianna Hickman’s Nicodemus Saga ....... 117

Homesteading on the Plains: The Ava Speese Day Story ................. 119

CHAPTER 7  Women of the Great Falls African Methodist Episcopal Church, 1870–1910 ......................... 122
Peggy Riley

Kate D. Chapman Describes Blacks in Yankton, Dakota Territory .......... 140

A Black Woman on the Montana Frontier ...................... 142

CHAPTER 8  “Is There No Blessing for Me?”: Jane Elizabeth Manning James, A Mormon African American Woman ............. 144
Ronald G. Coleman

The Early Twentieth Century

CHAPTER 9  “The Mountains Were Free and We Loved Them”: Dr. Ruth Flowers of Boulder, Colorado ................. 165
Susan Armitage

Nettie J. Asberry: African American Club Woman in the Pacific Northwest ........ 178
CHAPTER 10  Susie Revels Cayton, Beatrice Morrow Cannady, and the Campaign for Social Justice in the Pacific Northwest . . . 189
Quintard Taylor

MARCUS GARVEY: A SEATTLE WOMAN
REMEMBERS ............................................. 205

CHAPTER 11  “Try Being a Black Woman!”: Jobs in Denver, 1900–1970 ........................................ 207
Moya B. Hansen

HATTIE MCDANIEL WINS AN OSCAR ............... 228

CHAPTER 12  From Peola to Carmen: Fredi Washington, Dorothy Dandridge, and Hollywood’s Portrayal of the Tragic Mulatto ........................... 230
Alicia I. Rodríguez-Estrada

World War II

LYN CHILDS CONFRONTS A RACIST ACT ............ 251

ETTA GERMANY WRITES TO THE PRESIDENT ... 253

CHAPTER 13  “Women Made the Community”: African American Migrant Women and the Cultural Transformation of the San Francisco East Bay Area ............................. 254
Gretchen Lemke-Santangelo

Claytee D. White

The Civil Rights Era

CHAPTER 15  Lulu B. White and the Integration of the University of Texas, 1945–1950 ....................... 293
Merline Pitre
ADA LOIS SIPUEL FISHER AND
THE U.S. SUPREME COURT .................309

CHAPTER 16  Lucinda Todd and the Invisible Petitioners of Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas ....312
Cheryl Brown Henderson

CHAPTER 17  Clara Luper and the Civil Rights Movement
in Oklahoma City, 1958–1964 .....................328
Linda Williams Reese

ELAINE BROWN: BLACK PANTHER ...............344

CHAPTER 18  Black Radicalism in 1960s California:
Women in the Black Panther Party .............346
Jane Rhodes

Selected Bibliography ................................363

List of Contributors ...............................373

Index .............................................377