Contents

Acknowledgements vi

Introduction 1

1 Topical Ideology: Witches, Amazons, and Shakespeare’s Joan of Arc
   GABRIELE BERNHARD JACKSON 20

2 A Mingled Yarn: Shakespeare and the Cloth Workers
   RICHARD WILSON 42

3 Descanting on Deformity: Richard III and the Shape of History
   MARJORIE GARBER 62

4 Stages of History: Ideological Conflict, Alternative Plots
   PHYLLIS RACKIN 76

5 Engendering a Nation: Richard II
   JEAN E. HOWARD AND PHYLLIS RACKIN 96

6 Prince Hal’s Falstaff: Positioning Psychoanalysis and the Female Reproductive Body
   VALERIE TRAUB 113

7 Carnival and History: Henry IV
   GRAHAM HOLDERNESS 128

8 The Future of History: 1 and 2 Henry IV
   KIERNAN RYAN 147

9 A Tale of Two Branaghs: Henry V, Ideology, and the Mekong Agincourt
   CHRIS FITTER 169

10 Back by Popular Demand: The Two Versions of Henry V
    ANNABEL PATTERSON 184

11 ‘Wildehirisshem’: Colonialist Representation in Shakespeare’s Henry V
    DAVID J. BAKER 193

12 History and Ideology, Masculinity and Miscegenation: The Instance of Henry V
    ALAN SINFIELD AND JONATHAN DOLLIMORE 204

Bibliography 231
Index 241