Restructuring Regional and Local Economies:

Towards a Comparative Study of Scotland and Upper Silesia

Edited by
GEORGE BLAZYCA
University of Paisley UK

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables viii
List of Contributors ix
Acknowledgements x

PART I: INTRODUCTORY OVERVIEW

1 Transforming (worn out) Industrial Dynamos into Strong Regional Economies – A Comparison of the West of Scotland and Upper Silesia 3
George Blazyca and Andrzej Klasik

2 Regional Problems, Regional Policy and Regional Well-Being
– What Have We Learned in Recent Years? 15
Mike Danson

PART II: ECONOMIC TRANSFORMATION AND RESTRUCTURING
– FROM HEAVY INDUSTRY TO WEIGHTLESS ECONOMY?

3 Can Regional Policy Meet the Challenge of Regional Problems in Poland? 25
George Blazyca, Krystian Heffner and Ewa Helińska-Hughes

4 Polish Regional Policy and the Problems of Upper Silesia
After the First Transformation Decade 43
Andrzej Klasik and Krystian Heffner

5 The Economic Restructuring of the West of Scotland 1945-2000:
Some Lessons from a Historical Perspective 57
John Foster

PART III: SOCIAL PARTNERSHIP AND REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

6 Urban Policy, ‘Modesty’ and ‘Misunderstanding’:
On the Mythology of ‘Partnership’ in Urban Scotland 73
Chik Collins
7 Building Regional Development Capacity in Upper Silesia
   – Problems and Progress
   Małgorzata Czornik and Krzysztof Wrana
   85
8 Social Mobilization and Local Economic Development
   Janusz Hryniewicz
   93
9 Society in Transition – Social Aspects in Restructuring
   Heavy Industry Regions
   Marek S. Szczepański
   103

PART IV: STIMULATING ENTERPRISE

10 SMEs and Regeneration – A Comparison between Scotland and Poland
   Mike Danson, Ewa Helińska-Hughes and Geoff Whittam
   119
11 Enterprise Development in Upper Silesia
   – A Difficult Path in Regional Restructuring
   Bogumil Szczupak
   139
12 Enterprise Development: Lessons for Enterprise and Enterprise
   Clusters from Scotland’s Experience of Regional Policy
   Mike Danson and Geoff Whittam
   143

PART V: WHAT ROLE FOR FDI?

13 Foreign Direct Investment in Scotland: The Silicon Glen Experience
   Alistair Young
   159
14 FDI in Upper Silesia - Experience and Lessons
   Adam Drobiak
   175

Index

195