European Encounters
Migrants, migration and European societies since 1945

Edited by

RAINER OHLIGER
Humboldt University, Berlin

KAREN SCHÖNWÄLDER
Justus-Liebig University, Gießen

TRIADAFILOS TRIADAFILOPOULOS
New School for Social Research, New York

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Contributors vii
Acknowledgements ix

I. INTRODUCTION

1. European Encounters: Europe’s Migratory Experiences
   Karen Schönwälder, Rainer Ohliger and Triadafilos Triadafilopoulos
   3

II. THE PLURALITY OF THE MIGRATORY EXPERIENCE

2. Einwanderungsland Deutschland: A New Look at its Post-war History
   Anne von Oswald, Karen Schönwälder and Barbara Sonnenberger
   19

3. Post-war Immigration to Estonia: A Comparative Perspective
   Hill Kulu
   38

4. Minorities into Migrants: Emigration and Ethnic Unmixing in Twentieth-Century Romania
   Rainer Ohliger and Cătălin Turliuc
   53

5. Female Professional Immigration in Post-war Europe: Counteracting an Historical Amnesia
   Umut Erel and Eleonore Kofman
   71

III. MIGRATION AS A POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CHALLENGE

6. The Political Consequences of Forced Population Transfers: Refugee Incorporation in Greece and West Germany
   Triadafilos Triadafilopoulos
   99
IV. INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE IDENTITIES

11 The Role of Discourse in the Construction of an Emigré Community: Ukrainian Displaced Persons in Germany and Austria after the Second World War
   Volodymyr Kulyk 213

12 The Impact of Distorted Memory: Historical Narratives and Expellee Integration in West Germany, 1945-1970
   Pertti Ahonen 238

13 Do National Narratives Matter? Identity Formation among Portuguese Migrants in France and Germany
   Andrea Klimt 257

14 Whatever Happened to the Albanians? Some Clues to a Twentieth-Century European Mystery
   Isa Blumi 281

15 Recovering Memory is Regaining Dignity: Collective Memory and Migration in France
   Laure Teulières 300

Index 319