The

WHITEHOUSE WORLD

Transitions, Organization, and Office Operations

EDITED BY

MARTHA JOYNT KUMAR AND TERRY SULLIVAN

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY PRESS • College Station
CONTENTS

Introduction ix
Martha Joynt Kumar and Terry Sullivan

PART 1
The Presidential Transition

Meeting the Freight Train Head On: Planning for the Transition to Power 5
Martha Joynt Kumar, George C. Edwards III, James P. Pfiffner, and Terry Sullivan

Lessons from Past Presidential Transitions: Organization, Management, and Decision Making 25
John P. Burke

A Tale of Two Presidential Transitions, 1980 and 1988 45
John P. Burke

PART 2
The White House Environment: Politics, Organization, and Work Life

The Political Environment of the White House 63
John H. Kessel

The White House Is Like City Hall 81
Martha Joynt Kumar

The Pressures of White House Work Life: “Naked in a Glass House” 94
Martha Joynt Kumar

PART 3
White House Offices: Seven Keys to a Successful Start

The Office of Chief of Staff 111
Charles E. Walcott, Shirley Anne Warshaw, and Stephen Wayne

The Office of Staff Secretary 140
Karen Hult and Kathryn Dunn Tenpas