Overcoming Barriers to Technology Transfer and Business Commercialisation in Central and Eastern Europe
Solutions and Opportunities

Edited by

Richard A. Bendis
Kansas Technology Enterprise Corporation, Topeka, KS, USA

and

Stefan T. Craciunoiu
Industrial Liaisons Office – Mechanical Engineering and Research Institute, Bucharest, Romania

IOS Press
Amsterdam • Berlin • Oxford • Tokyo • Washington, DC
Published in cooperation with NATO Scientific Affairs Division
Contents

Preface v
Organizing Committee and Technical Assistance vi
List of Key Speakers and Participants vii

Session I: Barriers to Successful Business Development and Commercialisation in Central & Eastern Europe – Current Status of Business Development in C&E Europe

Regional Innovation and Technology Transfer Strategies – Estonian Case,
Rene Tönisson 3
R&D and Innovation in Central and East European Countries – A Macrostructural View, Werner Meske 9
RTD and Technology Transfer in the New Economic Situation in the Czech Republic, Jiří G.K. Ševcik 23
In-Depth Analysis of the Romanian Legislative System with the View to Facilitating the Technology Transfer on Global Market, Stefan Tudorel Craciunoiu 27
Software Outsourcing and International Cooperation in Hi Tech Companies, Ivan Vasilev Ivanov 41

Session II: Barriers to Successful Business Development and Commercialisation in C&E Europe – Mechanisms for Business Commercialisation in Central and Eastern Europe

SME's: The Engine that Drives Entrepreneurship Development; Ways of Replicating Western Successes in Central & Eastern Europe, Tom Shea 45
Technology Transfer as a Mean to Generate Maximum Value from Existing Technology with Minimum Additional Investment, Adrian Mihai Câmpurean and George Bala 47
Commercialisation of R&D Results in the Periphery of Europe: The Case of Crete, Artemis Saitakis 57
The Barriers to Successful Development of the Romanian SMEs through Technology Transfer, Ioan Pitelescu 71

Session III: How to Overcome the Barriers: Western Europe and U.S. Models

Technology Commercialisation: Linking Local and Global Opportunities, Richard A. Bendis 95
University Technology Transfer in the USA: Current Trends and Implications for Central and Eastern Europe, Terry Young 107
New Knowledge Based Campus Companies as a Vehicle for Technology Transfer and for Commercialisation, Dick Van Barneveld 113
The Academic Incubators for New Business Ideas: The Case of Campania Region in the South of Italy, Eugenio Corti, M. Panza and I. Torello 119
Session IV: Business Opportunities through Technology Transfer

Entrepreneurship in Albania and its Technology Problem, Zeki Kaya 135
Experiences, Barriers and Successes in Hungary, Péter Mogyorosi, Marton Vilmanyi and Balázs Revesz 151
Application Development Outsourcing to the New Independent States (NIS) of the Former Soviet Union, Ruben Vardapetian 163
Obstacles in Cleaner Production Transfer in the Field of SMEs, Sándor Kerekés and Gyula Zilahy 175

Session V: Opportunities for Change in the Region

Developing the Protocols for Technology Transfer and Intellectual Property Management in the Czech Republic, in Anticipation of the Country's Entry into the EU, Jaroslav Exner 185
Experience of Latvia Technology Park in Technology Transfer from Universities to SME’s, Leonid Ribickis 191
Technology Transfer and Innovation – Slovenian Experience, Aleš Mihelic 197
RTD Policy of Medium Size Technical Universities in Poland, Andrzej Sobkowiak 207

Session VI: Creation of a Regional Tech Transfer and Commercialisation Network for Central and Eastern Europe

Fostering Innovation in Business in Lithuania, Kastytis Gecas 221
The Innovation Potential of Bulgarian Enterprises, Milanka Slavova 229
Strategic Approaches to Overcoming Barriers to Technology and Knowledge Transfer at the Regional Level, Roy Tubb 235
Technology Transfer from Research Institutes to Small and Medium-sized Enterprises, Sigurd Sjursen 241

Conclusions and Recommendations 249

Author Index 254