Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 3
EDWARD EDEN

Section One: Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard

Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard 19
CAROL SHIELDS

Section Two: The 'Precious Oxygen of Permission': Shields’s Experiments with Narrative Form

Filling the Creative Void: Narrative Dilemmas in Small Ceremonies, the Happenstance Novels, and Swann 39
SARAH GAMBLE

The Republic of Love and Popular Romance 61
FAYE HAMMILL

The Stone Diaries, Jane Eyre, and the Burden of Romance 84
DIANNE OSLAND
Autobiography As Critical Practice in The Stone Diaries 113
WENDY ROY

'The Subjunctive Mode of One's Self': Carol Shields's Biography of Jane Austen 147
MELISSA POPE EDEN

Section Three: To 'Shorten the Distance between What Is Privately Felt and Universally Known': Reaching beyond the Word

Fat, Nail Clippings, Body Parts, or the Story of Where I Have Been: Carol Shields and Auto/Biography 175
CHIARA BRIGANTI

'She Enlarges on the Available Materials': A Postmodernism of Resistance in The Stone Diaries 201
LISA JOHNSON

Treading the Maze of Larry's Party 230
DEE GOERTZ

The Swann Who Laid the Golden Egg: A Cautionary Tale of Deconstructionist Cannibalism in Swann 255
KATHY BARBOUR

Section Four: Annotated Bibliography

Carol Shields: An Annotated Bibliography 285
FAYE HAMMILL

Contributors 311
Index 315