THE TELEVISION HISTORY BOOK

Edited by
Michele Hilmes

Associate Editor
Jason Jacobs

bfi Publishing

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(Grey box case studies are indicated in brackets)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Preface</th>
<th>vii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgments</td>
<td>ix</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Contributors</td>
<td>x</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INTRODUCTION

TV Nations – Michele Hilmes ....................................................... 1

TECHNOLOGIES

Introduction – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 4

Television’s Prehistory: Radio (The Origins of the Soap Opera) – David Hendy .................................................. 4

The Development of Television (High Definition Television 1969–90) – Brian Winston .................................................. 9

Cable, Satellite and the Challenge of Digital Media (Digital Distribution, Intellectual Property and the End of TV as We Know It?) – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 13

The Internet: From Cold War to Commercialisation – Clare Bratten .................................................. 19

INSTITUTIONS: FROM ORIGINS TO STABILITY

Introduction – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 22

The Origins of Public Service Broadcasting (British Television before the War) – Glen Creeber .................................................. 22

The Origins of Commercial Broadcasting in the US – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 26

Post-War Television in Britain: BBC and ITV – Tim O’Sullivan (Grace Wyndham Goldie – Jason Jacobs) .................................................. 30

Establishment of the US Television Networks (The ‘Other’ Networks) – Matthew Murray .................................................. 35

Competition and Change in British Television (Television in Wales 1960–80) – Jamie Medhurst .................................................. 40

The ‘Classic Network System’ in the US (Genre Cycles: Innovation, Imitation, Saturation) – Jason Mittell .................................................. 44

INSTITUTIONS: CONFLICT AND CHANGE

Introduction – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 50

Channel Four and the Redefining of Public Service Broadcasting (Jeremy Isaacs – First Chief Executive of Channel Four (1981–7)) – Sylvia Harvey .................................................. 50

Public Television and Public Access in the US (Paper Tiger Television) – Daniel Marcus .................................................. 55

Satellite, Cable and New Channels in the UK (Rupert Murdoch) – Tom O’Malley .................................................. 59

US Television in the Multichannel Age (Protectionism, Deregulation and The Telecommunications Act of 1996) – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 62

PROGRAMMING: 1950s–80s

Introduction – Michele Hilmes .................................................. 68

Early Television in Great Britain (The Coronation) – Jason Jacobs .................................................. 69

Experimental and Live Television in the US (Studio One, ‘The Hospital’) – Jason Jacobs .................................................. 72
ITV: 1955–89: Populism and Experimentation (Mystery and Imagination) – Helen Wheatley ........................................... 76
The ‘Youth Revolution’ and American Television (The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour [CBS, 1967–9]) – Aniko Bodroghkozy .................................................. 81
The BBC Adapts to Competition (Zircon) – Tom O’Malley ........................... 86
US Networks in the 1970s and 80s (Charlie’s Angels) – Elana Levine ............ 89

PROGRAMMING: NEW VENUES, NEW FORMS
Introduction – Michele Hilmes ................................................................. 95
Channel Four: Innovation in Form and Content? – John Ellis ....................... 95
Quality Drama in the US: The New ‘Golden Age’? (China Beach) – Jane Feuer 98
The 1990s: Quality or Dumbing Down? (Makeover Shows) – Rachel Moseley 103
New US Networks in the 1990s (Married . . . with Children) – Alisa Perren 107
Satellite and Cable Programmes in the UK (All Aussie Weekender: Sky One Down Under) – Ros Jennings 112
US Television Abroad: Exporting Culture (Baywatch) – Lisa Parks ............. 115
The Global Television Format Trade (Big Brother) – Albert Moran ............... 118

AUDIENCES
Introduction – Michele Hilmes ................................................................. 122
From Network to Neo-Network Audiences – Michael Curtin ........................ 122
From Mass to Meanings (Citizens and Consumers) – Justin Lewis ............... 126
The Ratings System and Its Effects (The A. C. Nielsen Company) – Eileen R. Meehan 129
The Television Violence Debates (The V-Chip) – Willard D. Rowland, Jr 132
Audiences and the Internet (Xena and Buffy Fans) – Allison McCracken .... 137

Bibliography ......................................................................................... 141
Index ....................................................................................................... 155