Beyond the Borders
American Literature and Post-colonial Theory

Edited by Deborah L. Madsen
Contents

Introduction: American Literature and Post-colonial Theory

1. Part 1 Ethnic Literature and Post-colonialism

   1. Indigenous Literatures and Postcolonial Theories: Reading from Comparative Frames
      Chadwick Allen
      15

2. Part 2 Post-colonialism at Home

   2. “Going Into a Whole Different Country”: Postcolonial “Nation”-hood in Native American Literature
      Lee Schweninger and Cara Cilano
      31

   3. Origin Story: On Being a White Native American(ist)
      John Hunt Peacock, Jr.
      51

   4. Counter-Discursive Strategies in Contemporary Chicana Writing
      Deborah L. Madsen
      65

   5. “At Least One Negro Everywhere”: African American Travel Writing
      Alasdair Pettinger
      77

   6. Unsettling Asian American Literature: When More than America is in the Heart
      Rajini Srikanth
      92

   7. Forging a Postcolonial Identity: Women of Chinese Ancestry Writing in English
      Mary Condé
      111

   8. Border Crossings: Filipino American Literature in the United States
      Angela Noelle Williams
      122

   9. Reading the Literatures of Hawai‘i Under an “Americanist” Rubric
      Paul Lyons
      135
Part 3  Post-colonialism in the Border Regions

10. Writing Migrations: The Place(s) of U.S. Puerto Rican Literature 151
   Frances R. Aparicio

11. Diasporic Disconnections: Insurrection and Forgetfulness in Contemporary Haitian and Latin-Caribbean Women’s Literature 167
   Myriam J. A. Chancy

12. Reclaiming Maps and Metaphors: Canadian First Nations and Narratives of Place 184
   Richard J. Lane

13. Thomas King and Contemporary Indigenous Identities 195
   Laura Peters

Part 4  American Post-colonialism at Home and Abroad

   Renny Christopher

15. Politics, Pleasure, and Intertextuality in Contemporary Southeast Asian Women’s Writing 222
   Julie Shackford-Bradley

   Geraldine Stoneham

List of Contributors 249
Index 253