Women and Urban Life in Eighteenth-Century England
‘On the Town’

Edited by
ROSEMARY SWEET and PENELOPE LANE
Contents

Notes on Contributors vii
Preface ix

1 Introduction 1
Rosemary Sweet

2 Women and Civic Life in Eighteenth-Century England 21
Rosemary Sweet

3 The Rag Plot: The Politics of Influence in Oxford, 1754 43
Elaine Chalus

4 Women as Objects and Agents of Charity in Eighteenth-Century Birmingham 65
Sylvia Pinches

5 Urban Businesswomen in Eighteenth-Century England 87
Christine Wiskin

6 Women Entrepreneurs and Urban Expansion: Manchester, 1760-1820 111
Hannah Barker and Karen Harvey

7 Prudent Luxury: The Metropolitan Tastes of Judith Baker, Durham Gentlewoman 131
Helen Berry

8 Women in Towns as Keepers of the Word: The Example of Warwickshire During the 1780s and 1830s 157
Denise Fowler

9 Mary Chandler’s Description of Bath (1733): A Tradeswoman Poet of the Georgian Urban Renaissance 173
David E. Shuttleton

Bibliography 195
Index 213