Contents

Contributors’ Biographies vii

Julie V. Gottlieb and Thomas P. Linehan: Introduction: Culture and the British Far Right 1

Part I: Cultural Perspectives: The British Far Right and Ideologies of Culture

Matthew Hendley: Women and the Nation: The Right and Projections of Feminized Political Images in Great Britain, 1900–18 13

Thomas P. Linehan: Reactionary Spectatorship: British Fascists and Cinema in Inter-War Britain 27

Roger Griffin: ‘This Fortress Built Against Infection’: The BUF Vision of Britain’s Theatrical and Musical Renaissance 45

Richard Thurlow: The Developing British Fascist Interpretation of Race, Culture and Evolution 66

Part II: Cultural Representations: Cultural Histories of British Fascism

Julie V. Gottlieb: Britain’s New Fascist Men: The Aestheticization of Brutality in British Fascist Propaganda 83

Philip M. Coupland: The Black Shirt in Britain: The Meanings and Functions of Political Uniform 100

Helen Pussard: The Blackshirts at Belle Vue: Fascist Theatre at a North-West Pleasure Ground 116

Steven Woodbridge: Purifying the Nation: Critiques of Cultural Decadence and Decline in British Neo-Fascist Ideology 129
Part III: Cultural Confrontations: Foreign Influences and Cultural Exchange

Claudia Baldoli: Anglo-Italian Fascist Solidarity? The Shift from Italophilia to Naziphilia in the BUF 147

Richard Griffiths: Another Form of Fascism: The Cultural Impact of the French 'Radical Right' in Britain 162

Dan Stone: The Far Right and the Back-to-the-Land Movement 182

Notes 199

Index 247