Contents

| LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS                        | 7 |
| LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS                         | 9 |
| Introduction                                 | 11 |
| Karen Jankulak & Jonathan M. Wooding         |   |

1. Ireland and Wales in the Middle Ages: an overview
   Proinsias Mac Cana
   Ireland and Wales in the Middle Ages: an overview
   Proinsias Mac Cana

2. Post-Roman Irish settlement in Wales: new insights from a recent study of Cardiganshire place-names
   Iwan Wmffre

3. Welsh ogams from an Irish perspective
   Catherine Swift

4. Britain, Wales and Ireland: holding things together
   Susan Youngs

5. The expulsion of the Irish from Dyfed
   Alex Woolf

6. Carantoc alias Cairnech?: British saints, Irish saints, and the Irish in Wales
   Karen Jankulak

7. Viking-age Gwynedd and Ireland: political relations
   Colmán Eitchingham

8. Bran son of Febal and Brân son of Lîyr
   John Carey

9. Some points of comparison and contrast between early Irish and Welsh law
   Mofydd E. Owen

10. Island and coastal churches in medieval Wales and Ireland
    Jonathan M. Wooding

11. Clients of the Angevin king: Rhys ap Gruffudd and Ruaidrí Ua Conchobair compared
    Robert S. Babcock

12. Mother of Mercy: the Virgin Mary and the Last Judgment in Welsh and Irish tradition
    Madeleine Gray & Salvador Ryan

BIBLIOGRAPHY                                    263
INDEX                                           287