Lawrence Durrell
and the Greek World

Edited by
Anna Lillios

Selinsgrove: Susquehanna University Press
London: Associated University Presses
Contents

Introduction 13
ANNA LILLIOS

Reminiscences

Corfu 2000 33
PENELOPE DURRELL HOPE
Margaret Durrell Remembers . . . : A Dialogue on Corfu 36
SUSAN and IAN MACNIVEN
Remembering the Poets: Translating Seferis with Durrell and Bernard Spencer 46
NANOS VALAORITIS

Corfu
An Unpublished Letter of Durrell to Marie Aspioti 57
PANOS KARAGIORGOS
The Discovery of Yourself: Lawrence Durrell and Gostan Zarian in Greece 62
DAVID STEPHEN CALONNE

Alexandria
The Secret History of Lawrence Durrell’s The Alexandria Quartet: The Mountolive-Hosnani Affair, Britain, and the Wafd 79
MIKE DIBOLL
“The old poet of the city”: Cavafy in Darley’s Alexandria 106
ANTHONY HIRST
The Alexandrian Mirages of Durrell and Cavafy 120
ANNA LILLIOS
Soundscapes, Smellscapes, and Cityscapes in The Alexandria Quartet 129
JACK STEWART
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Rhodes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Durrell on Rhodes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Leatham</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cyprus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Memories of Durrell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Penelope Tremayne</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Colonial Encounters: Lawrence Durrell's Bitter Lemons of Cyprus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Petra Tournay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Lawrence Durrell, the Bitterest Lemon?”: Cyps and Brits Loving Each Other to Death in Cyprus, 1953–57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vangelis Calotychos</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Durrell and Myth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>COMING TO MEDUSA: From desire to fear, and from love to disgust. Glosses on Durrell's discourse on modern love</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Corinne Alexandre-Garnier</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Something harder”: The Discovery of Self Through Greece, Fable, and Fairy Tale</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pauline Beard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Multiple Truths and Multiple Narratives: Nietzsche’s Perspectivalism and the Narrative Structure of The Alexandria Quartet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John M. Rose</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Durrell and Others</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lawrence Durrell and the Greek Poets: A Contribution to Cultural History</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marios Byron Raizis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two Mad-Dog Englishmen in the Corfu Sun: Lawrence Durrell and Edward Lear</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Maynard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“More than a Fascination with the Divine Marquis”: John Fowles's The Magus and Lawrence Durrell’s The Alexandria Quartet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patrick Quinn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Greek Inspirations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prospero's Cell: A Meditation on Place</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>H. R. Stoneback</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CONTENTS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Durrell's Ode to the Olive</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jane Keller</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Grecian Turn: Poems from Corfu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David Radavich</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Works Cited</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes on Contributors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>