LECTURES ON RELIGION
AND THE FOUNDING
OF THE AMERICAN REPUBLIC

Edited by John W. Welch with Stephen J. Fleming

Brigham Young University Press
Provo, Utah
– 2003 –
CONTENTS

Illustrations

Introduction by Randy J. Olsen and John W. Welch
1

Opening Remarks by Chief Justice Richard C. Howe
3

Religious Innovations for the New Nation

- "Nursing Fathers": The Model for Church-State Relations in America from James I to Jefferson
  James H. Hutson
  7

- The English Revolution, Milton, and the Roots of Religious Liberty in America
  John S. Tanner
  25

- The Influence of the Hebrew Scriptures on the Founders and Founding of the American Republic
  Andrew C. Skinner
  39

- Biblical Law in America: Historical Perspectives and Potentials for Reform
  John W. Welch
  49

Church and State in Shaping the Republic

- Virginia Founders and the Birth of Religious Freedom
  W. Cole Durham Jr. and Elizabeth A. Sewell
  67

- Religion at War in Support of the American Revolution
  Milton V. Backman Jr.
  77

- Thomas Jefferson: Religious Beliefs and Political Doctrines
  Matthew S. Holland
  85

Living with Religion in the Developing Nation

- "Awash in a Sea of Faith": America and the Second Great Awakening
  Grant Underwood
  97

- Could a Catholic Become an American? The Catholic Experience in the Early Years of the Country
  Bishop George Niederauer
  109

- Early Jewish Singers of the American Dream: From Penina Moise to Emma Lazarus
  Rabbi Frederick L. Wenger
  115

- Routing the Republic: Religion and the American West
  Laurie F. Maffly-Kipp
  125

Contributors

137

Index

139