Markets in Historical Contexts
Ideas and Politics in the Modern World

edited by
Mark Bevir and Frank Trentmann

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

_Acknowledgements_  page vii
_List of contributors_  viii

1 Markets in historical contexts: ideas, practices and governance
MARK BEVIR AND FRANK TRENTMANN

2 Improving justice: communities of norms in the Great Transformation
JAMES LIVESEY

3 The politics of political economy in France from Rousseau to Constant
RICHARD WHATMORE

4 Tories and markets: Britain 1800–1850
DAVID EASTWOOD

5 Guild theory and guild organization in France and Germany during the nineteenth century
HEINZ-GERHARD HAUPT

6 Thinking green, nineteenth-century style: John Stuart Mill and John Ruskin
DONALD WINCH

7 Tönnies on ‘community’ and ‘civil society’: clarifying some cross-currents in post-Marxian political thought
JOSE HARRIS

8 German historicism, progressive social thought, and the interventionist state in the United States since the 1880s
AXEL R. SCHÄFER
9 Civilizing markets: traditions of consumer politics in twentieth-century Britain, Japan and the United States
PATRICIA MACLACHLAN AND FRANK TRENTMANN

10 The ideologically embedded market: political legitimation and economic reform in India
ROB JENKINS

11 The locational and institutional embeddedness of electronic markets: the case of the global capital markets
SASKIA SASSEN

Index