The California Republic

Institutions, Statesmanship, and Policies

Edited By
Brian P. Janiskee and
Ken Masugi
Contents

Preface xi

Introduction: Republican Government in California xiii
  Brian P. Janiskee and Ken Masugi

Part I: California in a Federal System

Popular Sovereignty, the Right of Revolution, and California Statehood 3
  Herman Belz

Nature and Convention in the Creation of the 1849 California Constitution 33
  Gordon Lloyd

California and the Seventeenth Amendment 67
  Ralph A. Rossum

Californians and Their Constitution: Progressivism, Direct Democracy, and the Administrative State 97
  Edward J. Erler

Part II: Institutions

Broken Promise: The Rise and Fall of the California Legislature 127
  Dan Walters

No Allegiance but to the State: California Governors Hiram Johnson and Gray Davis 135
  Brian T. Kennedy

The Progressive Court 145
  Harold Johnson
The Elections of 2002: Clear-Cut or Ambiguous?
Richard H. Reeb Jr.

Part III: Local Government

The Problem of Local Government in California
Brian P. Janiskee

Local Government Finance in California
Steven B. Frates

The California Tax Revolt
Jon Coupal

Part IV: Statesmanship

Armageddon in the West: California's Hiram Johnson
Scot J. Zentner

Nixon, California, and American Politics
John J. Pitney Jr.

Ronald Reagan and the Transformation of Modern California
Steven F. Hayward

Part V: Policies and Perspectives

Affirmative Action and Proposition 209
Ward Connerly

Western Justice: John Ford and Sam Peckinpah on the Defense of the Heroic
John Marini

California Farming in a Classical Context
Victor Davis Hanson

The Politics of California Public Education
Larry Peterman

The Least Secure Right: Privately Owned Firearms in California
Daniel C. Palm

California's Political Mass Media
Richard H. Reeb Jr.
Contents ix

An EPIC Legacy 317
Stephen Schwartz

Water, Water Everywhere and Nary a Drop to Drink 325
Ric Williams

Bibliography 333
Index 349
About the Contributors 365