Contents

Preface to the Third Edition  xvi
Preface to the Second Edition  xviii
Preface to the First Edition  xix
Illustrations  xxii
Acknowledgments  xxiv

CHAPTER ONE
The Old World and the New  1

1. Natural Religion  9
   Ceremonies  9
   Hopi  9
   Zuni  12
   Chinook  14
   Kwakiutl  15
   Myths (things believed)  17
   Tsimshian  17
   Pima  20
   Cherokee  21
   Zuni  23

2. New Spain  24
   Ponce de León  24
   Bartholomew de Las Casas and Sublimis Deus  25
   Dominicans in Florida  26
Pedro Menéndez de Avilés and the Jesuits 28
Franciscans and Indian Revolt 29
Franciscans in New Mexico 31

3. New France
French Views of Native Americans 34
Advice to those “whom it shall please God to call to New France” 36
Brébeuf’s Instructions to Missionaries 38
Martyrdom of Isaac Jogues, S.J. 39
New France Proclaimed 41

4. New Netherland and New Sweden
Jonas Michaelius 43
Johannes Megapolensis and the Mohawks 45
Megapolensis and the Jews 47
Megapolensis and Isaac Jogues 47
John Printz of New Sweden 49
Dutch Surrender 51

5. England Anew
Virginia
- John Rolfe and Pocahantas 54
- Anti-Catholicism 57
- Church Establishment 58
- Virginia’s Cure 59
Massachusetts
- Reasons for Removal: The Pilgrims 63
- Persuading London 65
- Reasons for Removal: The Puritans 66
- A Modell of Christian Charity 67
- Puritan Poets 69
Special Cases: Maryland, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania
- Maryland and Roman Catholics 72
- English America’s First Mass 75
- Rhode Island and the Baptists 77
- Pennsylvania and the Quakers 80
- Penn and Liberty of Conscience 81
The English and the Indian 83
Indian Missions in Massachusetts 83
King Philip's War 85
William Penn and the Indians 86
Virginia Indians and the College of William & Mary 87
Suggested Reading 89

CHAPTER TWO
Americanizing the Ways of Faith 93

1. Religion and Social Order 96
   Congregationalism (Puritanism) 96
      Anne Hutchinson 96
      Mary Dyer 98
      Witchcraft at Salem: Trial of George Burroughs 99
      Witchcraft at Salem: Cotton Mather and Spectral Evidence 102
      Proposals of 1705 104
      Jonathan Mayhew and the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel 106
   The Anglican (Episcopal) Church 109
      Maryland: Appeal to Bishop of London 109
      New York: Against "Jesuits & Popish Priests" 112
      New York: Against the Presbyterians 114
      North Carolina: Anglicanism "over-toping its power" 116
      South Carolina: Huguenot Quarrel 118
      Episcopacy Issue: Pennsylvania and New England 120

2. Religious and Racial Variety 125
   Continental Diversity 125
      The Palatines 125
      The Salzburgers 127
      Gottlieb Mittelberger and the Atlantic Crossing 133
      Henry Muhlenberg: A Typical Day 136
      Jesuit Banishment 137
   British Diversity 139
      Muhlenberg as Ecumenical Churchman 139
      Muhlenberg and the Baptists 141
CHAPTER THREE

Revolution: Political and Ecclesiastical

1. Religion and Revolution

Pacifism

Moravians

Mennonites

Pacifism in Virginia

Schwenkfelders

Loyalism
Contents

Quakers Support the King 207
Pennsylvania Anglicans 208
Personal Clerical Struggles 210
Charles Inglis of New York 213
Patriotism: A Matter of Bishops 216
Rhetoric of Revolution 219
Anthony Benezet 219
John Allen 221
Phillis Wheatley 223
Isaac Backus 225
Samuel Sherwood 227

2. Aftermath of Revolution 229
Religious Liberty Guaranteed 229
  Thomas Jefferson's Bill for Establishing Religious Freedom 229
  James Madison's Memorial and Remonstrance 232
  Isaac Backus and a Bill of Rights 238
Religious Liberty Effected 241
  Virginia's Episcopalians 241
  Virginia's Baptists 243
  Virginia's Presbyterians 245
Religious Liberty Tested: The Administration of George Washington 246

3. Religion in the Revolution and the New Republic 252
Religion, Rational and Natural 252
  Universalism 252
  Unitarianism 255
  Deism 266
Religion, Evangelical and Hierarchical 271
  Methodism (White) 271
  Methodism (Black) 273
  Roman Catholicism 276
The Practice of Piety 280
  Susanna Anthony of Newport 280
  John Leland of New England and Virginia 282
  Elizabeth Ann Seton of Baltimore 286
CHAPTER FOUR

Liberty Unleashed

1. The Voluntary Principle
   Disestablishment
     Connecticut
     Massachusetts
   Voluntary Societies and Society's Reform
     Lyman Beecher on Dueling and Temperance
     American Bible Society
     American Sunday School Union
     American Tract Society and the Colporteur System
   Revivalism
     Harriet Livermore before Congress
     C. G. Finney
     The New Lebanon Convention

2. Progress and the Perfect Society
   Transcendentalism and Brook Farm
     Emerson as Transcendentalist
     Peabody on Brook Farm
   Oneida Community and Bible Communism
     Complex Marriage
     Scientific Propagation
   Latter-Day Saints and New Revelation
     Joseph Smith Recounts His First Vision
     Printing of the Book of Mormon
     Joseph Smith's Revelation on Plural Marriage
     Joseph Smith's Martyrdom
     Brigham Young Assumes Leadership
     Exodus Announced
     Requirements for the Journey
     Church Authorities Appeal to Iowa Governor
3. Restorations and Expectations 352
Restorationism: Disciples of Christ 352
  Barton Stone 352
  Alexander Campbell 354
Millennialism 357
  Shakers 357
  Millerites 360
  Adventists (Seventh-day) 363
Spiritualism 365
  Margaret Fox 365
  Horace Greeley 367

4. Denominations and Winning the West 371
Plan of Union: Congregationalists and Presbyterians 371
  The Plan Adopted 371
  The Plan Implemented 373
Frontier Religion: Baptists and Methodists 375
  Baptist Conversion 375
  Methodist Circuit 377
Retreats and Revivals: Roman Catholicism 379
  Retreats in Maryland 379
  Bishop Flaget's Jubilee 380
  Missions vs. Revivals 382
Frontier Fate: Winning, Losing 384
  A Survivor's Cup of Sorrow 384
  A Victim's Valley of Death 386

5. Voluntarism Revisited 391
The Principle Observed 391
The Principle Defined 393
The Principle Demonstrated 395
Suggested Reading 402
CHAPTER FIVE
Evangelical Empire: Rise and Fall

1. Theology in the New Nation
   Robert Baird's "General Remarks" 409
   Alexander Campbell 411
   Charles Hodge 413
   Phoebe Palmer 415
   Horace Bushnell 417
   J. W. Nevin 422
   Charles Porterfield Krauth 425

2. Pluralism or Protestantism
   Judaism 428
   Isaac Leeser as Catechist 428
   Isaac Mayer Wise in Albany 430
   Leeser's Missionary Journeys 433
   Roman Catholicism 437
   Trusteeism 437
   Orestes A. Brownson 439
   Isaac T. Hecker 445
   John England 451
   Hispanic Catholicism 455
   Nativism 459
   Samuel F. B. Morse 459
   Awful Disclosures 462
   Religious Know-Nothings 463
   Native American Revivals 466
   Handsome Lake 466
   Tenskwatawa 469

3. Human Rights and American Religion
   Black Religion and Slavery 471
   Lemuel Haynes 471
   Slave Religion 474
   Nat Turner 477
   Daniel A. Payne 481
CHAPTER SIX

Sectional Crisis and Reconstruction

1. Debate over Slavery 520
   Varieties of Abolitionism 520
   Elijah Lovejoy 520
   William Lloyd Garrison 524
   Harriet Beecher Stowe 526
   Frederick Douglass 529
   Orestes A. Brownson 532
   White Apologists 534
   American Colonization Society 534
   John England 536
   James Henley Thornwell 538
   Thornton Stringfellow 542

2. The Civil War as a Religious Event 544
   The Scene 544
   An Outcry against War 544
   “Christ in the Camp” 547
   Military Rule 550
   Territory Conquered 552
   Theological Reflection 555
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>John Rice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charles Pettit McIlvaine</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Christian Examiner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Horace Bushnell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Meditations on the Nation under God</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Brown</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philip Schaff</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abraham Lincoln</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charles Hodge</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. After the War</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Welcome to the Ransomed&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emancipation Celebrated</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aid Solicited</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Education Offered</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Optimism Tempered</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hopes Destroyed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Task</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Unity Maintained</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Division Hardened</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lost Cause Affirmed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>African Americans Organized</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Suggested Reading</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>