The Victorians and the Eighteenth Century
Reassessing the Tradition

Edited by
FRANCIS O’GORMAN
University of Leeds, UK

KATHERINE TURNER
Exeter College Oxford, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Illustrations
Acknowledgements
Notes on Contributors

Preface
David Fairer

Introduction
Francis O’Gorman and Katherine Turner

1. The Debt to Society: Dickens, Fielding, and the Genealogy of Independence
Helen Small

2. George Eliot, Rousseau, and the Discipline of Natural Consequences
Simon Dentith

3. ‘The Dreams of thy Youth’: Bucks, Belles and Half-way Men in Victorian Fiction
Carolyn D. Williams

4. The ‘High Priest of an Age of Prose and Reason’? Alexander Pope and the Victorians
Francis O’Gorman

5. The Cultural Politics of Eighteenth-century Representation in Victorian Literary Histories
Elisabeth Jay

6. The ‘Link of Transition’: Samuel Johnson and the Victorians
Katherine Turner

7. Departures and Returns: Writing the English Dictionary in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries
Lynda Mugglestone
8 Ruskin's Revised Eighteenth Century 163
   Dinah Birch

9 Sincerity in Every Department? Masks, Masculinity, and Market Forces in Eighteenth-century English Men of Letters 182
   David Amigoni

10 ‘I am Nothing’: A Typology of the Forger from Chatterton to Wilde 203
   Nick Groom

11 Regarding the Eighteenth Century: Vernon Lee and Emilia Dilke Construct a Period 223
   Hilary Fraser

Selected Bibliography 250

Index 262