DOWN AND OUT in Early America
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: “The Best Poor Man’s Country”?
Billy G. Smith xi

1 Poverty and Politics in Early American History
Gary B. Nash 1

PART ONE Lives of the Poor

2 Dead Bodies: Poverty and Death in Early National Philadelphia
Simon Newman 41

3 Malthusian Miseries and the Working Poor in Philadelphia, 1780–1830: Gender and Infant Mortality
Susan E. Klepp 63

4 Slaves and Poverty
Philip D. Morgan 93

PART TWO Poor Relief

5 “Who Died an Expence to This Town”: Poor Relief in Eighteenth-Century Rhode Island
Ruth Wallis Herndon 135

6 Gender and the Political Economy of Poor Relief in Colonial Philadelphia
Karin Wulf 163

7 Poor Relief “Without Violating the Rights of Humanity”: Almshouse Administration in the Philadelphia Region, 1790–1860
Monique Bourque 189

8 Bound by Charity: The Abandoned Children of Late Eighteenth-Century Charleston
John E. Murray 213
PART THREE  Politics, Religion, and the Creation of Poverty

9  Poverty and Politics in the Hudson River Valley
   Thomas Humphrey
   235

10  "God Helps Those Who Help Themselves":
   Religious Explanations of Poverty in Colonial Massachusetts,
   1630–1776
   J. Richard Olivas
   262

11  The Delaware Indians and Poverty in Colonial New Jersey
   Jean R. Soderlund
   289

Contributors 313
Index 317