CONTENTS

List of illustrations
vii
List of contributors
ix

Introduction
1

1 Material culture and conflict: the Great War, 1914–2003
NICHOLAS J. SAUNDERS
5

2 Art, material life and disaster: civilian and military prisoners of war
ANNETTE BECKER
26

3 ‘Sacred relics’: objects in the Imperial War Museum 1917–39
PAUL CORNISH
35

4 Prostheses and propaganda: materiality and the human body in the Great War
JEFFREY S. REZNICK
51

5 Nagelfiguren: nailing patriotism in Germany 1914–18
SUSANNE BRANDT
62

6 Shattered experiences – recycled relics: strategies of representation and the legacy of the Great War
FABIO GYGI
72

7 The Great War re-remembered: the fragmentation of the world’s largest painting
MARK LEVITCH
90
CONTENTS

8 Death and material culture: the case of pictures during the First World War 109
JOELLE BEURIER

9 A material link between war and peace: First World War silk postcards 123
PAT TOMCZYSZYN

10 Thanks for the memory: war memorials, spectatorship and the trajectories of commemoration 1919–2001 134
JONATHAN BLACK

11 The lion, the angel and the war memorial: some French sites revisited 149
WILLIAM KIDD

12 The Internet and the Great War: the impact on the making and meaning of Great War history 166
NILS FABIANSSON

13 The Ocean Villas project: archaeology in the service of European remembrance 179
JON PRICE

14 Aftermath: materiality on the Home Front, 1914–2001 192
JOHN SCHOFIELD

Index 207