CONTENTS

Introduction Imperialisms: Early Modern to Premodernist
Balachandra Rajan and Elizabeth Sauer

Part I
Early Modern European Imperialisms: Literary Representations

1. “The Ship Comes Well-Laden”: Court Politics, Colonialism, and Cuckoldry in Gil Vicente’s Auto da India
Shankar Raman
15

2. Learning from Spain: The Case of the Irish Moriscos
Barbara Fuchs
33

3. “Those People Far Surpass us”: Gulliver, the Japanese, and the Dutch
Robbyt Markley
53

Part II
Early Modern Europeans on India

4. Civilization and the Problem of Race: Portuguese and Italian Travel Narratives to India
Dorothy Figueira
75

5. England in Moghul India: Historicizing Cultural Difference and Its Discontents
Paul Stevens
93

6. The British and the Dutch in India, 1751–99
Florence D’Souza
111
Part III
Early Imperialisms: East and West 127

7 Empire as Composite: The Ottoman Polity and the Typology of Dominion 129
   Daniel Goffman and Christopher Stroop

8 The Maliki Imperialism of Ahmad al-Mansur: The Moroccan Invasion of Sudan, 1591 147
   Nabil I. Matar

9 Colonial Benedictions: Worldly Catholics and Secular Priests in French Indochina 163
   Patricia M. Pelley

A Note on “Further India” 177
   Balachandra Rajan

Part IV
English and French Imperialisms: Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries 185

10 “English” and French Imperial Designs in Canada and in a Larger Context 187
   Jonathan Hart

11 Displacement and Anxiety: Empire and Opera 203
   Linda Hutcheon and Michael Hutcheon

Part V
German Imperial Philosophies and Practices 217

12 Germany’s “Orient”: Discursive Alliances of the Philosopher, Historian, and Fiction Writer 219
   Kamakshi P. Murti

13 The Colonial Pedagogy of Imperial Germany: Self-Denial in the Interest of the Nation 237
   Sabine Wilke