CONTENTS

Introduction: Utopia and Dystopia in American Culture
Jaap Verheul 1

I. WRITINGUTOPIA: CONSTRUCTING THE AMERICAN REPUBLIC

America and the “British Revolution:” Geopolitics and Transatlantic Emigration in the 1790s’ Jacobin and Anti-Jacobin Novel
W.M. Verhoeven 13

Debating Domesticity: Women, History, and Utopia in the Early Republic
Teresa Murphy 26

The Leopard’s Spots: Thomas Dixon’s Dystopia of Radical Reconstruction
Anneke Leenhouts 34

II. UTOPIAN DREAMS AND DYSTOPIAN REALITIES IN THE GILDED AGE

“The Eyes of All People Are Upon Us:” Utopia, Dystopia and Brooklyn Bridge
Richard Haw 45

“Instruct the Minds of all Classes:” Celebrations of Empire at the American Circus, 1898-1910
Janet M. Davis 58

“In Perfect Operation:” Social Vision and the Building of the Panama Canal
Alexander Missal 69

Producerist Dreams and the Dystopia of “Wage Slavery” and “Progress”
Mel van Elteren 78

Bullying the Pulpit: Harold Frederic’s Challenge to Authority in American Culture
Lisa MacFarlane 90

A Utopian America: Charlotte Perkins Gilman’s Herland
Matilde Martín González 100
CONTENTS

III. LOCATING UTOPIA: CITIES, FRONTIERS AND LANDSCAPES

Resuscitating Willem Kieft: Utopian Alternatives to Dystopian Traditions
Christopher Pierce 111

Dangers Within and Dangers Without: Director-General Petrus Stuyvesant
and the Building of a New Society
Jaap Jacobs 122

Los Angeles in the 1930s: Magic City, White Utopia, or Multicultural Museum?
Julia Leyda 130

“The Fall of America:” Confessional Narrative and the Documentary
Literature of the Great Depression
Richard Nate 137

In and Out of History: Forest Lawn’s Ideal America
Kevin McNamara 149

IV. REALIZED UTOPIAS AS TECHNOLOGICAL DYSTOPIAS

From Utopia to “Real-topia”—Inventing the Inevitable
David E. Nye 161

Cyber Dreams and Nightmares: Early Adopters, Luddites and the Millennium Bug
Kate Delaney 173

Apocalypse Now: Evangelical Visions of Dystopia at the End of the Last Millennium
Nancy A. Schaefer 183

Reprogramming Human Nature: Utopian and Dystopian Views in Science Fiction
Elisabeth Kraus 198

V. LITERARY UTOPIAS AND APOCALYPTIC PROJECTIONS AT THE END OF A MILLENNIUM

Utopian Literature in the United States 1990-2000
Lyman Tower Sargent 207
CONTENTS

The Utopias and Dystopias of Generation X
Paul McDonald 220

Apocalypse and Utopia in the Works of Gerald Vizenor
Suzanne Harmsen-Peraino 228

How the West Was Lost: Apocalyptic Visions of Multicultural America in Bharati Mukherjee’s Leave it to Me
Andrea Dlaska 239

Notes on Contributors 249