THE PORTLAND EDGE

Challenges and Successes in Growing Communities

EDITED BY CONNIE P. OZAWA

ISLAND PRESS
WASHINGTON • COVELO • LONDON
CONTENTS

List of Tables, Figures, and Photos

Preface

Introduction

1. The Portland Edge in Context
   Heike Mayer and John Provo

2. It's Not an Experiment: Regional Planning at Metro, 1990 to the Present
   Ethan Seltzer

3. Urban Redevelopment in Portland: Making the City Livable for Everyone?
   Karen J. Gibson

4. Dialectics of Control: The Origins and Evolution of Conflict in Portland's Neighborhood Association Program
   Matthew Witt

5. The Myth and Reality of Portland's Engaged Citizenry and Process-Oriented Government
   Steven Reed Johnson

   Gerald Sussman and J. R. Estes
Contents

7. If Zealously Promoted by All: The Push and Pull of Portland Parks History
   Chet Orloff
   140

8. Centers and Edges: Reshaping Downtown Portland
   Carl Abbott
   164

9. The Reality of Portland's Housing Market
   Deborah Howe
   184

10. Housing Density and Livability in Portland
    Nancy Chapman and Hollie Lund
    206

11. The Evolution of Transportation Planning in the Portland Metropolitan Area
    Sy Adler and Jennifer Dill
    230

12. Keeping the Green Edge: Stream Corridor Protection in the Portland Metropolitan Region
    Connie P. Ozawa and J. Alan Yeakley
    257

    Tracy J. Prince
    280

Conclusion
   302

About the Contributors
   305

Index
   311