New Regionalism in Australia

AL RAINNIE AND MARDELENE GROBBELAAR
Monash University, Australia

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables viii
List of Contributors ix
Foreword xiii

INTRODUCTION

1 The Knowledge Economy, New Regionalism and the Re-emergence of Regions
   Al Rainnie and Julie Grant
   3

PART I: NEW REGIONALISM IN THEORY AND PRACTICE

2 Sustainable Regions: Governance, Innovation and Sustainability
   Kevin Morgan
   27

3 Institutions, Institutional Behaviours and the Australian Regional Economic Landscape
   Phillip O'Neill
   49

PART II: THE NEW ECONOMY?

4 Regional Call Centres: New Economy, New Work and Sustainable Regional Development?
   John Burgess, Jayne Drinkwater and Julia Connell
   69

5 Cooperative Research Centres and Industrial Clusters: Implications for Australian Biotechnology Strategies
   Alan Howgrave-Graham and Peter Galvin
   87

6 Symbolic Analysts in the New Economy? Call Centres in Less Favoured Regions
   Alison Dean and Al Rainnie
   103
PART III: A NEW GOVERNANCE?

7  'Growing Victoria Together': The Challenges of Integrating Social, Economic and Environmental Policy Directions at State and Regional Levels
   John Wiseman
   125

8  Upper Spencer Gulf Common Purpose Group — from Adversity to Action: Learning to Collaborate at all Levels
   Andrew Eastick and Tony O'Malley
   145

9  Closing the Gap between Government and Community
   Jan Lowe and Evan Hill
   165

10 Communities, Regions, States: Accountabilities and Contradictions
   Margaret Lynn
   181

PART IV: A NEW INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS?

11 The New Regionalism and Employment Relations in Australia
   Susan McGrath-Champ
   199

12 What About the Workers? Labour and the Making of Regions
   Bradon Ellem
   217

PART V: THE LOCAL RESPONSE

13 The Regional Export Extension Service: A Local Response to Global Challenges
   Bridget Kearins
   239

14 Beyond Social Capital: Contributions of Subjective Indicators from within Communities
   Helen Sheil
   259

15 Choosing Noosa's Future: Involving the Community in Local Governance
   Ellen Vasiliauskas, Rae Norris, Anne Kennedy, Angela Bryan and Harold Richins 279

16 Local versus State-Driven Production of 'The Region': Regional Tourism Policy in the Hunter, New South Wales, Australia
   Dianne Dredge
   301

Index
   321