Tourism, Ethnic Diversity and the City

Edited by Jan Rath

§ J Routledge
( j ^ Taylor & Francis Group
NEW YORK AND LONDON
Contents

List of illustrations
List of contributors
Preface
Acknowledgements

1. Tourism, migration and place advantage in the global cultural economy
   C. MICHAEL HALL AND JAN RATH

PART I

Immigrant entrepreneurs

2. Making the new economy: immigrant entrepreneurs and emerging transnational networks of international education and tourism in Seoul and Vancouver
   MIN-JUNG KWAK AND DANIEL HIEBERT

3. Urban boosterism, tourism and ethnic minority enterprise in Birmingham
   TREVOR JONES AND MONDER RAM

4. Ethnic precincts as contradictory tourist spaces
   JOCK COLLINS

PART II

Immigrant workers

5. Caterers of the consumed metropolis: ethnicized tourism and entertainment labourscapes in Istanbul
   VOLKAN AYTAR
Contents

6 Immigrants, tourists and the metropolitan landscape: producing the metropolis of consumption in Orlando, Florida 107
HUGH BARTLING

PART III
Ethnic diversity in urban place promotion 123

7 Ethnic heritage tourism and global-local connections in New Orleans 125
KEVIN FOX GOTHAM

8 Tourism and New York's ethnic diversity: an underutilized resource? 143
SUSAN S. FAINSTEIN AND JOHN C. POWERS

9 Selling Miami: tourism promotion and immigrant neighbourhoods in the capital of Latin America 164
GASTON ALONSO

10 Building a market of ethnic references: activism and diversity in multicultural settings in Lisbon 181
M. MARGARIDA MARQUES AND FRANCISCO LIMA DA COSTA

11 Tourists 'R' Us: immigrants, ethnic tourism and the marketing of metropolitan Boston 199
Marilyn HALTER

Index 216