Contents

Acknowledgements vii
General Editors’ Preface ix
Introduction xiii

PART ONE – SILK ACROSS THE PACIFIC
1 The Great Silk Exchange: How the World was Connected and Developed Debin Ma 1
2 Silk for Silver: Manila-Macao Trade in the 17th Century Dennis O. Flynn and Arturo Giráldez 33
3 The Mechanics of the Macao-Nagasaki Silk Trade Michael Cooper 51
4 Silk Raising in Colonial Mexico: Preliminary Schemes The Decline of Silk Raising Woodrow Borah 63
5 Silk Culture in California E.O. Essig 101

PART TWO – FLOWS OF TECHNOLOGY AND INSTITUTION: EAST AND WEST
6 Pre-Modern European Silk Technology and East Asia: Who Imported What? Claudio Zanier 105
7 Silk-Reeling in Modern East Asia: Internationalization and Ramifications of Local Adaptation: In the Late 19th Century Kazuko Furuta 191
8 Transplantation of the European Factory System and Adaptations in Japan: The Experience of the Tomioka Model Filature Yukihiko Kiyokawa 221

PART THREE – COTTON AND CLOTH ALONG THE PACIFIC
9 The Cloth Trade in Jambi and Palembang Society during the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries Barbara Watson Andaya 235
10  Textile Displacement and the Status of Women in Southeast Asia
   Norman Owen 255

11  Inchon Trade: Japanese and Chinese Merchants and the Shanghai
    Network
   Kazuko Furuta 285

12  Industrial Concentration and the Capital Markets: a Comparative
    Study of Brazil, Mexico, and the United States, 1830–1930
   Stephen H. Haber 311

PART FOUR – WOOL IN AUSTRALIA

13  A Century and a Half of Wool Marketing
   A. Barnard 333

Index 349