From the United Irishmen to twentieth-century Unionism

A Festschrift for A.T.Q. Stewart

Sabine Wichert
EDITOR

FOUR COURTS PRESS
Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 7

Introduction 9
SABINE WICHERT

Stewart on history 13
ARTHUR AUGHEY

Making history in Belfast: the tale of Francis Joseph Bigger, Samuel Shannon Millin and Waddell Cunningham 24
NINI RODGERS

The women in the gallery: women and politics in eighteenth-century Ireland 35
MARY O’DOWD

The Kent treason trials of 1798: a window on the United Irishmen 48
MARIANNE ELLIOTT

The rector and the rebel 61
ALLAN BLACKSTOCK

Dr Duigenan reconsidered 79
PETER JUPP

Moral force unionism: A.V. Dicey and Ireland, 1885–1922 97
D. GEORGE BOYCE

Pillar of unionism: the politics of Theresa, sixth marchioness of Londonderry 111
DIANE URQUHART

Carson as advocate: Marjoribanks and Wilde 126
OWEN DUDLEY EDWARDS

‘The Ulster crisis’: some ideological questions revisited 159
PAUL BEW

Militant opposition to Home Rule: the after-life 175
ALVIN JACKSON
Contents

Why did Unionists discriminate?
MARC MULHOLLAND

Unionist intellectuals and the politics of Northern Ireland
RICHARD ENGLISH

A.T.Q. STEWART’S MAJOR PUBLICATIONS

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

INDEX