Bloom’s GUIDES

William Golding’s Lord of the Flies

Edited & with an Introduction by Harold Bloom
Contents

Introduction 7
Biographical Sketch 9
The Story Behind the Story 11
List of Characters 14
Summary and Analysis 17
Critical Views 56
  William Golding on the Work as a Fable 56
  E.M. Forster’s Introduction to Lord of the Flies 58
  Frederick R. Karl on the Metaphysical Novels of William Golding 60
  Frank Kermode on William Golding and the ‘Programme’ of the Novel 62
  Harry H. Taylor on the Case against William Golding’s Simon-Piggy 65
  Eugene Hollahan on Running in Circles: A Major Motif in Lord of the Flies 67
  Kathleen Woodward on Aggression 69
  S.J. Boyd on the Nature of the Beast 71
  Lawrence S. Friedman on the Inability to Alter Human Nature 73
  Stefan Hawlin on the Savages in the Forest: Decolonising William Golding 75
  James R. Baker on Golding and Huxley: The Fables of Demonic Possession 78
  Paul Crawford on Literature of Atrocity: Lord of the Flies and The Inheritor 81
Works by William Golding 83
Annotated Bibliography 84
Contributors 88
Acknowledgments 91
Index 93