THIRTEENTH CENTURY ENGLAND

PROCEEDINGS OF
THE DURHAM CONFERENCE
2003

Edited by
Michael Prestwich, Richard Britnell and Robin Frame

THE BOYDELL PRESS
CONTENTS

PREFACE vii

ABBREVIATIONS ix

The Meetings of Kings Henry III and Louis IX
David Carpenter 1

Counting the Cost: The Financial Implications of the Loss of Normandy
Nick Barratt 31

Networks of Markets and Networks of Patronage in Thirteenth-Century England
Emilia Jamroziak 41

Michael Ray 51

The Eyre de terris datis, 1267–1272
Susan Stewart 69

Joan, Wife of Llywelyn the Great
Louise J. Wilkinson 81

Town and Crown: The Kings of England and their City of Dublin
Seán Duffy 95

English Landholding in Ireland
Beth Hartland 119

The Reception of the Matter of Britain in Thirteenth-Century England: A Study of Some Anglo-Norman Manuscripts of Wace’s Roman de Brut
Françoise Le Saux 131

Fearing God, Honouring the King: The Episcopate of Robert de Chaury, Bishop of Carlisle, 1258–1278
Henry Summerson 147

Cloistered Women and Male Authority: Power and Authority in Yorkshire Nunneries in the Later Middle Ages
Janet Burton 155

Taxation and Settlement in Medieval Devon
Harold Fox 167

Clipstone Peel: Fortification and Politics from Bannockburn to the Treaty of Leake, 1314–1318
David Crook 187
Royal Patronage and Political Allegiance: The Household Knights of Edward II, 1314–1321
Alistair Tebbit

‘Edward II’ in Italy: English and Welsh Political Exiles and Fugitives in Continental Europe, 1322–1364
Seymour Phillips