American Mythologies
Essays on Contemporary Literature

Edited by William Blazek and Michael K. Glenday

LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Introduction 1

1 Indians with Voices: Revisiting Savagism and Civilization
   Betty Louise Bell (University of Michigan) 15

2 Wild Hope: Love, Money and Mythic Identity in the Novels of Louise Erdrich
   William Blazek (Liverpool Hope University College) 29

3 Float Like a Butterfly, Sting Like a Bee: Mythologies of Representation in Selected Writings on Boxing by Norman Mailer
   Christopher Brookeman (University of Westminster) 47

4 The Secret Sharing: Myth and Memory in the Writing of Jayne Anne Phillips
   Michael K. Glenday (The Open University) 63

5 The Individual’s Ghost: Towards a New Mythology of the Postmodern
   Leslie Heywood (State University of New York, Binghamton) 79

6 ‘Cheap, On Sale, American Dream’: Contemporary Asian American Women Writers’ Responses to American Success
   Mythologies
   Philippa Kafka (Kean University) 105

7 ‘No Way Back Forever’: American Western Myth in Cormac
   McCarthy’s Border Trilogy
   Peter Messent (University of Nottingham) 128
8 Native American Visions of Apocalypse: Prophecy and Protest in the Fiction of Leslie Marmon Silko and Gerald Vizenor
David Mogen (Colorado State University) 157

9 The Brave New World of Computing in Post-war American Science Fiction
David Seed (University of Liverpool) 168

10 Mythologies of 'Ecstatic immersion': America, The Poem and the Ethics of Lyric in Jorie Graham and Lisa Jarnot
Nick Selby (University of Glasgow) 202

11 Whose Myth is it Anyway? Coyote in the Poetry of Gary Snyder and Simon J. Ortiz
Mark Shackleton (University of Helsinki) 226

12 Aging, Anxious and Apocalyptic: Baseball's Myths for the Millennium
Deeanne Westbrook (Portland State University) 243

13 Finding a Voice, Telling a Story: Constructing Communal Identity in Contemporary American Women's Writing
Lois Parkinson Zamora (University of Houston) 267

Notes on Contributors 295
Index 299