Anchorites, Wombs and Tombs

Intersections of Gender and Enclosure in the Middle Ages

Edited by

LIZ HERBERT McAVOY and MARI HUGHES-EDWARDS

UNIVERSITY OF WALES PRESS
CARDIFF
2005
CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors vii
Series Editors’ Preface xi
Acknowledgements xii
List of Abbreviations xiii

Foreword
Anneke B. Mulder-Bakker 1

1 Introduction: Intersections of Time and Space in Gender and Enclosure
Liz Herbert McAvoy and Mari Hughes-Edwards 6

2 Context: Some Reflections on Wombs and Tombs and Inclusive Language
Alexandra Barratt 27

I ENCLOSEMENT AND DISCOURSES OF THE DESERT

3 Guthlac A and Guthlac B: Changing Metaphors
Santha Bhattacharji 41

4 Representations of the Anchoritic Life in Goscelin of Saint-Bertin’s Liber confortatorius
Rebecca Hayward 54

5 Male and Female Cistercians and their Gendered Experiences of the Margins, the Wilderness and the Periphery
Elizabeth Freeman 65

6 The Whitefriars’ Return to Carmel
Johan Bergström-Allen 77
CONTENTS

II GENDER AND ENCLOSURE: LATE MEDIEVAL INTERSECTIONS

7 ‘Crepe into that blessed syde’: Enclosure Imagery in Aelred of Rievaulx’s de Institutione Inclusarum
Kristen McQuinn 95

8 Gladly Alone, Gladly Silent: Isolation and Exile in the Anchoritic Mystical Experience
Susannah Mary Chewning 103

9 Dionysius of Ryckel: Masculinity and Historical Memory
Ulrike Wiethaus 116

10 ‘Wrapt as if to the third heaven’: Gender and Contemplation in Late Medieval Anchoritic Guidance Writing
Mari Hughes-Edwards 131

III BEYOND THE TOMB: THE QUESTION OF AUDIENCE

11 ‘Efter hire euene’: Lay Audiences and the Variable Asceticism of Ancrene Wisse
Robert Hasenfratz 145

12 Beyond the Tomb: Ancrene Wisse and Lay Piety
Cate Gunn 161

13 The Anchoritic Elements of Holkham Misc. 41
Catherine Innes-Parker 172

14 ‘Closyd in an hows of ston’: Discourses of Anchoritism and The Book of Margery Kempe
Liz Herbert McAvoy 182

Select Bibliography 195
Index 217