DEBATING THE CANON: A READER FROM ADDISON TO NAFISI

Edited by

LEE MORRISSEY

palgrave macmillan
Contents

Lee Morrissey, Introduction: “The Canon Brawl: Arguments over the Canon” 1

1. Joseph Addison (1672–1719): from The Tatler, No. 108 (Thursday, December 15, to Saturday, December 17, 1709) 15
4. Red Jacket (c.1750–1830): “Why not all agree, as you can all read the book?” from a speech to the Boston Missionary Society (1828) 23
14. Elaine Showalter (1941–): from “The Female Tradition,” A Literature of Their Own (1977) 87
CONTENTS

17. William J. Bennett (1943–): from “To Reclaim a Legacy,” American Education (1985) 111
23. Frank Kermode (1919–): from “Canon and Period,” History and Value (1988) 147
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Author and Year of Life</th>
<th>Selection and Source</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Permissions

Index