Kerstin Sundberg, Tomas Germundsson, Kjell Hansen (eds)

Modernisation and Tradition
European Local and Manorial Societies 1500–1900
Contents

Preface
9

Part I

Comparative and Conceptual Analysis

Introduction
Kerstin Sundberg

From protection to privileges – forsvar and herligheder
Concept analysis as social history, Denmark–Scania 1450–1650
Mathias Cederholm

Modern manors?
The character of some manors in Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein
Carsten Porskrog Rasmussen

Physiocracy – the missing link?
Dan Ch. Christensen

József Eötvös and the age of Hungarian reform
Anna Cabak Rédei

Serfdom and literacy in northern manorial worlds
Kerstin Sundberg

Modernised traditionalism
On behavioural patterns in differently structured rural societies
Jan Peters
Part II
Empirical Studies I
– Landscape, Places and Buildings

Introduction
_Tomas Germundsson_ 183

Landscape and modernity
Contrasting impressions from estate domains in Scania _Tomas Germundsson_ 190

From fishing to farming village
Quappendorf an der Oder in the eighteenth century _Heinrich Kaak_ 222

Augustenborg
Ducal hierarchy on the road towards modernity _Mikkel Venborg Pedersen_ 243

“The demands of the new age”
Ideology and practice in building activity on Scanian estates in the nineteenth century _Siegrun Fernlund_ 265

Part III
Empirical Studies II
– Social Relations and Work

Introduction
_Kjell Hansen_ 307

Modernity as action
Work contracts and the written culture _Kjell Hansen_ 312

Contractual relations on Vittskövle estate _Christer Lundh_ 330
Peasants on trial
Village conflicts between local social control and manorial court 351

Barbara Krug-Richter

Indications of modernisation?
The transitional roles of clergymen on Rügen 374

Magnus Eriksson

Corvée and Communion
Secularisation in the late nineteenth century
– a comparison between parishes 395

Henrik Svensson

Authors 415