Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Notes on Contributors ix
Acknowledgements xi

Introduction 1

Part I  Appropriating the Ancients and Representing the Aged

1 Medical Representations of Old Age in the Renaissance: The Influence of Non-Medical Texts
   Daniel Schäfer 11

2 Time's Whirligig: Images of Old Age in Coriolanus, Francis Bacon, and Thomas Newton
   Nina Taunton 21

3 Youth, Old Age and Male Self-Fashioning: The Appropriation of the Anacreontic Figure of the Old Man by Jonson and his 'Sons'
   Stella Achilleos 39

Part II  Aging at Court

4 Old Age in Castiglione's The Book of the Courtier
   Maria Teresa Ricci 57

5 Aging the Lover: The Posies of George Gascoigne
   Kevin P. Laam 75

Part III  The Aging Self

6 'Should I as Yet Call You Old?' Testing the Boundaries of Female Old Age in Early Modern England
   Aki C. L. Beam 95

7 Thematic Reflections on Old Age in Titian's Late Works
   Zbynek Smetana 117
Contents

Part IV   Power, Fragility, and Anxiety

8   Visible Signs of Aging: Images of Old Women in Renaissance Venice
    Mary E. Frank

9   ‘Unenduring’ Beauty: Gender and Old Age in Early Modern Art and Aesthetics
    Erin J. Campbell

10  Cosimo’s Black Widow
    Allison Levy

11  Sans Wife: Sexual Anxiety and the Old Man in Shakespeare
    Philip D. Collington

Selected Bibliography

Index