SOUTHEAST ASIA
AND
NEW ZEALAND
A HISTORY OF REGIONAL AND BILATERAL RELATIONS
EDITED BY
ANTHONY L. SMITH

Institute of Southeast Asian Studies
Singapore

New Zealand
Institute of International Affairs in association with
Victoria University Press
CONTENTS

Contributors vii
Glossary ix
Preface xiii

Introduction: The Emergence of New Zealand's Relationship with Southeast Asia
Anthony L. Smith 1

1. The Defence Dimension
Ian McGibbon 7

2. Coming to Terms with the Regional Identity
Jim Rolfe 32

3. The Economic Relationship
Gary R. Hawke 57

4. The "Dilemma" of Recognition: New Zealand and Cambodia
Anthony L. Smith 93

5. Diplomacy, Peacekeeping, and Nation-Building:
New Zealand and East Timor
Stephen Hoadley 124
6. Uneasy Partners: New Zealand and Indonesia
   Michael Green

7. Growing Apart: New Zealand and Malaysia
   Mark G. Rolls

8. Beyond the Rhetoric: New Zealand and Myanmar
   Guy Wilson-Roberts

9. Warmth Without Depth: New Zealand and the Philippines
   Rhys Richards

10. Palm and Pine: New Zealand and Singapore
    Gerald Hensley

11. From an Alliance to a Broad Relationship:
    New Zealand and Thailand
    Anthony L. Smith

12. In the Shadow of War: New Zealand and Vietnam
    Roberto Rabel