The Irish in Us

DIANE NEGRA, EDITOR

Irishness, Performativity, and Popular Culture

Contents

Diane Negra  The Irish in Us: Irishness, Performativity, and Popular Culture, 1

Catherine M. Eagan  "Still 'Black' and 'Proud'": Irish America and the Racial Politics of Hibernophilia, 20

Sean Griffin  The Wearing of the Green: Performing Irishness in the Fox Wartime Musical, 64

Natasha Casey  "The Best Kept Secret In Retail": Selling Irishness in Contemporary America, 84

Maria Pramaggiore  "Papa Don't Preach": Pregnancy and Performance in Contemporary Irish Cinema, 110

Stephanie Rains  Irish Roots: Genealogy and the Performance of Irishness, 130

Lauren Onkey  Ray Charles on Hyndford Street: Van Morrison's Caledonian Soul, 161

Mary McGlynn  Garth Brooks in Ireland, or, Play That Country Music, Whiteboys, 196

Amanda Third  "Does the Rug Match the Carpet?": Race, Gender, and the Redheaded Woman, 220

Gerardine Meaney  Dead, White, Male: Irishness in Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Angel, 254

Maeve Connolly  "A Bit of a Traveller in Everybody": Traveller Identities in Irish and American Culture, 282

Michael Malouf  Feeling Éire(y): On Irish-Caribbean Popular Culture, 318

Diane Negra  Irishness, Innocence, and American Identity Politics before and after September 11, 354

Contributors, 373

Index, 377