Approaches to the Anglo and American Female Epic, 1621–1982

Edited by BERNARD SCHWEIZER
Long Island University, USA

ASHGATE
Contents

Acknowledgments vii
List of Contributors viii

Introduction: Muses with Pens 1

Part 1 British Women’s Prose Epics
1 Romancing the Epic: Lady Mary Wroth’s Urania and Literary Traditions 19
   Sheila Cavanagh
2 Female Heroic Action in Frances Burney’s Camilla 37
   Elizabeth Kraft
3 Virginia Woolf and the Modern Epic 55
   Karla Alwes
4 Epic Form and (Re)Vision in Rebecca West’s 69
   Black Lamb and Grey Falcon
   Bernard Schweizer

Part 2 British Women’s Verse Epics
5 Gendering Telemachus: Anna Seward and the Epic 85
   Rewriting of Fénelon’s Télémaque
   Adeline Johns-Putra
6 The Female Epic and the Journey Toward Self-Definition in 99
   Mary Tighe’s Psyche
   Debnita Chakravarti
7 “Hear the Voice of the [Female] Bard”: Aurora Leigh as a Female 117
   Romantic Epic
   Peggy Dunn Bailey
Part 3  American Women's Verse Epics

8  The Daughters of Penelope: Tradition and Innovation in American Epics by Women
Alan C. Jalowitz
141

9  Revisionary Postwar Heroism in Gwendolyn Brooks's Annie Allen
Jenny Goodman
159

10  Against the Fathers' Amnesia: Sharon Doubiago, Hard Country, and Women's Epic
Jeremy M. Downes
181

Bibliography
211

Index
225