Aboriginal Drama and Theatre

Edited by Rob Appleford

Playwrights Canada Press
Toronto • Canada
Table of Contents

General Editor’s Preface iii
Acknowledgements v

Introduction: Seeing the Full Frame by Rob Appleford (2005) vii

On Native Mythology
by Tomson Highway (1987) 1

Absorption, Elimination, and the Hybrid: Some Impure Questions of Gender and Culture in the Trickster Drama of Tomson Highway
by Sheila Rabillard (1993) 4

The theatre of orphans/Native languages on stage
by Floyd Favel Starr (1993) 32

Receiving Aboriginality: Tomson Highway and the Crisis of Cultural Authenticity
by Alan filewod (1994) 37

‘Shine on us, Grandmother Moon’: Coding in Canadian First Nations Drama
by Reid Gilbert (1996) 49

Alive and well: Native theatre in Canada
by Drew Hayden Taylor (1996) 61

The artificial tree: native performance culture research, 1991-1996
by Floyd Favel Starr (1997) 69

Hybridity and Mimicry in the Plays of Drew Hayden Taylor
by Robert Nunn (1998) 74

Selling Myself: the Value of an Artist
by Yvette Nolan (1999) 95

Translators, Traitors, Mistresses, and Whores: Monique Mojica and the Mothers of the Métis Nations
by Ric Knowles (2001) 106
The Beginning of Cree Performance Culture
by Geraldine Manossa (2001) 124

A Handful of Plays by Native Earthlings

Daniel David Moses: Ghostwriter With a Vengeance
by Rob Appleford (2005) 150

A Windigo Tale: Contemporizing and Mythologizing the Residential School Experience by Armand Garnet Ruffo (2005) 166

Suggested Further Reading 181

Notes on Contributors 185