Contents

List of Figures vii
Notes on Contributors viii
Acknowledgements x
List of Abbreviations xi

Introduction: Stabilizing and Destabilizing Britain in the 1680s 1
Jason McElligott

1 Reformation and ‘Arbitrary Government’: London Dissenters and James II’s Polity of Toleration, 1687–1688 13
Gary S. De Krey

2 Roger Morrice and the Huguenot Refugees 32
Robin Gwynn

3 The Politics of Religious Imagery in the Late Seventeenth Century 49
Clare Haynes

4 L’Estrange and the Publishing Sphere 67
Geoff Kemp

5 London Besieged? The City’s Vulnerability during the Glorious Revolution 91
Charles-Edouard Levillain

6 ‘Eminent Cheats’: Rogue Narratives in the Literature of the Exclusion Crisis 108
Kate Loveman

7 The ‘prints’ of the Trials: The Nexus of Politics, Religion, Law and Information in Late Seventeenth-Century England 123
Michael Mendle

8 Gilbert Burnet’s Reformation and the Semantics of Popery 138
Andrew Starkie
9 'High feeding and smart Drinking': Associating Hedge-Lane
Lords in Exclusion Crisis London
Newton E. Key

10 Dissenters and the Writing of History: Ralph Thoresby's 'Lives and Characters'
David L. Wykes

11 Nursing Sedition: Women, Dissent, and the Whig Struggle
Melinda S. Zook

12 Judging Partisan News and the Language of Interest
Mark Knights

Index