CONTENTS

Contributors xi
Acknowledgements xiv
Abbreviations and acronyms xv

1 Introduction 1
JON ROPER AND JOHN BAYLIS

2 The idea of America and the idea of Europe: Presidential power and constitutional authority 9
JON ROPER

3 The old and the new: Germany, Poland and the recalibration of transatlantic security relations 27
KERRY LONGHURST

4 From dispute to consensus: the emergence of transatlantic opposition to neo-conservatism 43
JEAN-MARIE RUIZ

5 German transatlanticism: between narcissism and nostalgia 55
WADE JACOBY

6 Britain, the United States and Europe: to choose or not to choose? 72
JOHN BAYLIS

7 The United States and the Common European Security and Defence Policy: no end to drift? 89
STEVE MARSH
CONTENTS

8 Beyond NATO? The European Security and Defence Project
JOLYON HOWORTH 107

9 The transatlantic alliance in the Iraq crisis
SAKI RUTH DOCKRILL 122

10 The spies that bind: intelligence cooperation between the UK, the US, and the EU
STAN A. TAYLOR 142

11 Transatlantic relations in a global economy
JOSEPH A. MCKINNEY 162

12 Political economy: divergence and convergence between the United States and Europe
CRAIG PHELAN 176

13 New World and Old Europe: American screen images of Britain and France
BEATRICE HEUSER 194

14 'Divided we stand': America's rhetoric of defence and defensive European politics
WALTER W. HÖLBLING 216

Select bibliography 229
Index 232