Alcohol
A Social and Cultural History

Edited by
Mack P. Holt
Contents

Introduction 1

Part I Morality and Health 9

1 To Your Health: Wine as Food and Medicine in Mid-sixteenth-century Italy 11
   Ken Albala

2 Europe Divided: Wine, Beer, and the Reformation in Sixteenth-century Europe 25
   Mack P. Holt

3 In the Public Sphere: Efforts to Curb the Consumption of Rum in Connecticut, 1760–1820 41
   David W. Conroy

4 In Vino Veritas: The Construction of Alcoholic Disease in Liberal Italy, 1880–1914 61
   Paul A. Garfinkel

5 Mon docteur le vin: Wine and Health in France, 1900–1950 77
   Kim Munholland

Part II Sociability 91

6 Drinking and Alehouses in the Diary of an English Mercer’s Apprentice, 1663–1674 93
   A. Lynn Martin

7 Taverns and the Public Sphere in the French Revolution 107
   Thomas Brennan

8 Drink, Sociability, and Social Class in France, 1789–1945: The Emergence of a Proletarian Public Sphere 121
   W. Scott Haine
Contents

9 The Lore of the Brotherhood: Continuity and Change in Urban American Saloon Culture, 1870–1920 145
Madelon M. Powers

Part III State and Nation 161

10 “To the King o’er the Water”: Scotland and Claret, c. 1660–1763” 163
Charles Cameron Ludington

11 Revenue and Revelry on Tap: The Russian Tavern 185
Patricia Herlihy

12 Drinking the Good Life: Australia c. 1880–1980 203
Diane Erica Kirkby

13 Kaleidoscope in Motion: Drinking in the United States, 1400–2000 225
Jack S. Blocker, Jr.

Index 241