Carmen
From Silent Film to MTV

Edited by Chris Perriam
and
Ann Davies
Contents

- Introduction
  - Ann Davies

- Space, Time and Gender in the Film d’Art Carmen of 1910
  - Nicholas Till

- Geraldine Farrar and Cecil B. DeMille: The Effect of Opera on Film and Film on Opera in 1915
  - Gillian B. Anderson

- Carmen and Early Cinema: The Case of Jacques Feyder (1926)
  - Winifred Woodhull

- Shadow and Substance: Reiniger’s Carmen Cuts Her Own Capers
  - Harriet Margolis

- A Carmenesque Dietrich in The Devil Is A Woman: Erotic Scenarios, Modern Desires and Cultural Differences Between the USA and Spain
  - Hilaria Loyo

- Rehispanicizing Carmen: Cultural Reappropriations in Spanish Cinema
  - José F. Colmeiro

- Putting the Blame on Carmen: The Rita Hayworth Version
  - Peter William Evans

- Screen Politics: Otto Preminger’s Carmen Jones
  - Nelly Furman

- The Dissonant Refrains of Jean-Luc Godard’s Prénom Carmen
  - Amy Herzog
Carlos Saura’s Carmen: Hybridity and the Inescapable Cliché 151
Andrés Lema-Hincapié

Cinematic Carmen and the ‘Oeil Noir’ 167
Jeremy Tambling

The Turbulent Movement of Forms: Rosi’s Postmodern Carmen 189
Mary P. Wood

Carmen as Perennial Fusion: From Habanera to Hip-Hop 205
Susan McClary

List of Contributors 217

Index 219